0:12	presenter	Hi, I'm Finn, I work for the BBC in London as a producer. I start work at nine thirty and usually finish around six. What do you do?
0:26	man	I'm a teacher, I teach science at a secondary school.
0:30	woman	I'm a receptionist for Camden Council in London.
0:33	man and woman	I'm an English teacher, actually.
0:35	woman	I work for the government.
0:36	woman	I'm a student.
0:37	man	I'm retired, yes.
0:38	man and woman	I'm a graphic designer.
0:40	man	I teach English in Abu Dhabi.
0:43	man	I'm a student nurse.
0:47	presenter	Tell me about your daily routine?
0:50	woman	I get up at about half past six, grab a cup of tea, sometimes some cereal, I catch my bus at about twenty past seven, to Bristol.
1:00	man	Well I get up at about six o'clock, I don't have breakfast because I don't have time, I jump in my car and go to work.
1:08	woman	It takes me about twenty minutes to get to my workplace, take phone calls, look after the staff that are there and some of the children, I leave at five, and get back home about six.
1:19	man	I work from half past eight until three thirty. At three thirty I finish, I catch the tube home, then I make some food.
1:30	man	I get into work, always have a meeting in the morning, and then always help patients wash and change beds.
1:41	man	Normally I go for a walk and I go to the gym every morning and go for a swim.
1:47	man and woman	Usually I wake up, make a couple of cups of coffee, check my email on the computer. Then I get on my bike and ride to work, and then work from nine till about four thirty I'm finished.
2:03	presenter	What do you like about your daily routine?
2:05	man	I like going to work, I enjoy teaching and I like getting home and relaxing in the evenings.
2:13	man	It changes, it's always different, and it's enjoyable, I enjoy my work.
2:20	man	I like the fact that I've got my own free-time now, yes.
2:23	woman	My workplace is quite near to me so I don't have to travel far,
2:26	woman	I love what I'm doing, I love my course.
2:29	man	Well I like to see the people I work with, I like the students, I like my job, it's a very pleasant place to be.
2:39	presenter	What don't you like about your daily routine?
2:41	man	I don't like the rush in the mornings to get the tube.
2:45	man	The worst part is waking up especially in the winter when it tends to be dark and cold.
